Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 07 November 2007.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 1-21, 23-39 and 55-58 is/are pending in the application.
- 4a) Of the above claim(s) 3-7, 23 and 24 is/are withdrawn from consideration.
- 5) ☐ Claim(s) _____ is/are allowed.
- 6) ☒ Claim(s) 1, 2, 8-21 and 25-39 is/are rejected.
- 7) ☐ Claim(s) _____ is/are objected to.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1, 2, 8-21, 25-39 and 55-58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Livingston (US Pat 2699774).

Livingston discloses the claimed invention of an elongated stabilization device with a longitudinal axis, a length, a cross-section, and a curved configuration (see figure 7 where device is circular along the longitudinal axis) (claim 1, 25), a rigid rod (claim 2), elongated outer member (19), elongated inner member (claim 8, 25), both with tapered ends at both ends of each member (claim 9, 27), where the inner member can inserted to the second position where the outer member is expanded to engage bony tissue (see figure 6) (claim 10, 11, 20, 21, 28, 29, 38, 39), inner member has leading end nose (38) and outer member has inner surface (35) with a tapered portion (36) (col 2:32-81) (claim 12, 30), inner member has a enlarged trailing end (42) and an intermediate nose (41, figure 5) outer member has an enlarged trailing end portion (30) (claim 13, 16, 31, 34), inner member has a threaded portion (40) (claim 14, 32), intermediate and leading end nose engages inner surface of outer member (see fig 6) (claim 15, 33).

Regarding claims 17-19, 26 and 35-37, it is noted that while features of an apparatus may be recited either structurally or functionally, claims directed to an apparatus must be distinguished from the prior art in terms of structure rather than function. (See MPEP 2114). Any statement of intended use and other functional statements do not impose any structural limitations on the claims and are not distinguishable over Livingston, which is capable of being used as claimed if one so desires to do so. In re Casey, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967) and In re Otto, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963). Furthermore, the law of anticipation does not require that the reference "teach" what the subject patent teaches, but rather it is only necessary that the claims under attack "read on" something in the reference. Kalman v. Kimberly Clark Corp., 218 USPQ 781 (CCPA 1983). Furthermore, the manner in which a device is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

It is noted that the amended claims still read on Livingston since, in a fully expanded state, the device comprises a curved configuration forming an arc along a length of the device, wherein the arc and longitudinal axis are co-linear. See, e.g., Figs. 6 and 8. Likewise, in a collapsed state (e.g. partially collapsed or not completely expanded) the device comprises a curved configuration forming an arc along the length of the device. It is noted that the claims do not require that the device be completely collapsed.

Regarding the intended use of the device in a particular anatomical location, the device of Livingston is inherently capable of performing the use, at least, for example, by being inserted at an angle to arrive at the desired final location.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
